

July 5th 1939

Mr. B. J. Early,

Dear Mr. Early,

I thank you for your letter received on July 3 and the accompanying return of the Liverpool Organiser's expenses to date. I am forwarding herewith a further £12 cheque, which as you will notice requires your signature.

The other matters raised in your letter are essentially matters which should be submitted for consideration by the National Executive. I realise that like ourselves the Liverpool Council is handicapped by lack of funds, but I have no authority to make any transfer from the National to a Regional account. On the contrary, I have specific instructions from Dublin to the effect that the advances made towards paying the salaries and expenses of Organisers should not be applied for any other purpose, expenses such as those incidental to the organisation of meetings to be covered by funds raised locally.

I was very glad to have the opportunity of discussing a number of matters with Tomas O'Moran last Saturday, I got the impression generally that, having regard to the circumstances, good progress was being <sup>made</sup> in Liverpool and would like to offer congratulations on the results achieved, despite the lack of adequate funds.

Yours sincerely,

Hon. Sec. Prov. Nat. Executive.